

Remember your face covering to stay safe.

Pupils and teachers in England's secondary schools and colleges are now required to wear face coverings in communal areas and corridors.