

FREE TSST Maths and Core Maths Subject Knowledge Enhancement Courses for qualified teachers

*The purpose of this accredited training is twofold: to improve subject knowledge and to demonstrate teaching methods Free to schools, with £400 Bursary per participant

Objectives

The Programme:

- Improves subject knowledge
- Provides pedagogy based training
- Develops teacher confidence

Audience

Existing teachers will QTS already teaching or would like to be able to teach Maths and Core Maths in any of the following categories:

- Non Subject Specialist Teacher whose initial training was not in Maths or Core Maths and who finds themselves spending a considerable time teaching in these subjects
- NQTs
- Ex teachers who want to return to the teaching profession

Facilitators

Delivered by Specialist Leaders in Education in partnership with the University of Plymouth over two full days during each term as follows:

Autumn 2018: 16 October and 4 December

Spring 2019: 15 January and 19 March

Summer 2019: 14 May and 2 July

Core Maths takes place at The Polesworth School and meetings generally take place from 3.30 – 5.30 pm on the following dates:

22 November 2018, 6 December 2018

31 January 2019, 14 February 2019, 7 March 2019, 4 April 2019 and 2 May 2019

There are also flexible, bespoke TSST packages available in Physics and MFL. For further details contact catts@thepolesworthschool.com to discuss your requirements. This training can take place in your school and be tailored to the training needs of your department. A range of support and guidance is available to enhance the teaching and learning of languages and for STEM subjects.

There are three cohorts for Secondary Maths. These will take place