What will happen to my application while the College is closed?

You will be offered a conditional place on the course of your choice, as indicated by your application via our website. This offer will be conditional on you attending an interview with the College when circumstances allow and that you meet the entry criteria for the course to which you applied.

Providing you meet the terms of the conditional offer, you can be assured of a place on the course of your choice.

What is happening regarding enrolments for September?

We are currently working on plans to conduct enrolment for September electronically. However, this is subject to decisions that will be made by Government in respect of the spread of the coronavirus and their anticipated return to work advice.

We will update this advice as soon as we are made aware of changing advice from Government or when we have devised an electronic enrolment.

Can I still apply to start college in September whilst the campuses are closed?

Of course! You can still apply via the website as normal.

You can find information on how to apply here, or you can use our Live Chat function – our team will be able to help you through the process of applying.

Will you still be holding events on campus, such as the upcoming Open Event in June?

We have temporarily postponed all events apart from the usual timetable of study for our learners – this is to minimise the impact of the virus on both campuses. Our next Open Day is provisionally scheduled for Thursday 18 June, and we will keep people updated about the status of this event, along with other events, once we receive further guidance from the Government.

Due to the current situation, we are unable to run our open days or offer guided tours of the college. Take a look at our 'virtual tour' for an insight into life at Hereward. As soon as it is safe to do so, we will reintroduce visits and open events. Please continue to check our website for updates <https://www.hereward.ac.uk/learn-with-us/admissions/>

For further information on applying for a place at Hereward College please email the Admissions Team on admissions@hereward.ac.uk. Once you have decided that you would like to study at Hereward College, a more detailed Application form will need to be completed and returned to admissions@hereward.ac.uk.

The college deadline for submitting applications for September 2020 entry has been extended until 1st June 2020. We will, of course, continue to accept applications after this date but we cannot guarantee that we will still have places left on all our courses.

Can I still contact the college to make a course enquiry?

Absolutely – the college is still accepting enquiries and applications for all its courses. We are also answering enquiries via messenger on our website.

Please note that our switchboard will only be open from 9am – 3pm, Monday through to Wednesday.

I've booked to attend one of your Open Events – will these still be going ahead?

Yes, during the lockdown period we will be holding virtual open events. Go to the events section on our website to find out more.

If you have already registered for an event, keep an eye on your emails, we'll be in touch soon.

I had an interview scheduled but the college is closed

The College will continue to interview applicants and will conduct interviews over the telephone. Our Admissions Team will be contacting all prospective students to advise them of this.
