The National Professional Qualification for Senior Leadership is a revised, nationally accredited programme delivered by trained facilitators from Finham Park 2 and Lawrence Sheriff School. This stimulating and engaging programme uses high quality learning materials, offering the opportunity to consider your school leadership through discussion and debate with your peers and coach.

The programme incorporates personal learning and reflection; self-study of online modular materials; a whole school leadership challenge; support through the programme by a learning coach from your school; evaluating the leadership of teaching and learning and the skills needed to close achievement gaps.

“Informative, relaxed, well-delivered” “Delivery was energetic and quirky”
“Fantastic to be able to communicate and liaise with fellow leaders to share experiences and develop my own understanding “

Sessions will be held at:

Finham Park School 2

Leigh Court, Torrington Avenue

Coventry, CV4 9WT

The course costs £850, including externally verified final assessment.
