Lawrence Sheriff School
A National Teaching School

A course aimed at senior leaders who are looking to develop their whole school curriculum provision. We will unpick some of the key messages in recent OFSTED documentation about developing the curriculum including what 'Intent, Implementation and Impact' really mean and consider what this might mean for your individual settings.

We will also look at how we have approached our curriculum development at AFJS and our experiences of curriculum inspection under the new OFSTED framework from the pilot inspection we took part in last year, including what a 'deep dive' might entail.
