

Let's Discuss

Launch date

6th May 2022

Audience

KS3+ school/college
leaders and teachers

Link (live from 6th May)

<https://bit.ly/3vYLfmi>

fundamental british values

Islamist extremism

left-wing anarchist
and single-issue

extreme right-wing

Short films

Lesson plans

Presentation slides

Class tasks

What are the 'Let's Discuss' resources?

On 6th May 2022 Educate Against Hate will be launching their 'Let's Discuss' resource packs. Each pack comprises a short film, lesson plan, class task and PowerPoint presentation to help teachers plan engaging, accurate and in-depth conversations with students that help build their resilience to extremist narratives. The packs help teachers have difficult classroom conversations about:

- Extreme right-wing terrorism
- Islamist extremism
- Left-wing, anarchist and single-issue extremism
- Fundamental British values

How you can help to raise awareness of these resource packs

Below we've provided some suggested tweets, newsletter copy and access to our asset packs with GIFs and images. Between 6th May and 14th May you can help us by sharing this news through your communication channels, we'll be tweeting about Let's Discuss from @Educationgovuk and @EducateAgainst. We'll be using the hashtag #LetsDiscuss

You can find all social media assets in our Google Drive folder to use in your own posts.

From the 6th May we'll be tweeting about a Let's Discuss each day up to the 14th May from @EducateAgainst, please retweet to support if you're able.

Suggested copy for newsletters

'The Department for Education's Educate Against Hate campaign has released four resource packs to help teachers with difficult classroom conversations about topics such as extreme right-wing terrorism, Islamist extremism, fundamental British values and left-wing, anarchist and single-issue extremism.

Each resource pack provides teachers with a short film, lesson plan, classroom task and PowerPoint presentation to help them facilitate classroom conversations and build their students' resilience to extremist ideologies.'

Suggested images for newsletters

You can find all social media assets in our Google Drive folder to use in your own posts.

When we'll be posting about Let's Discuss

| Date | Pack | Channels | Suggested image |
|----------|---------------------------------------|--|--|
| 6th May | All | Facebook, Twitter, educateagainstthate.com |  |
| 9th May | Extreme right-wing terrorism | Facebook, Twitter |  |
| 10th May | Islamist extremism | Facebook, Twitter |  |
| 11th May | Fundamental British values | Facebook, Twitter |  |
| 12th May | Left-wing, anarchist and single-issue | Facebook, Twitter |  |
| 13th May | Blog post | Facebook, Twitter, educateagainstthate.com |  |

You can find all social media assets in our Google Drive folder to use in your own posts.

Suggested tweet/post copy

6th May - launch

Want to lead meaningful discussions about extremism and radicalisation in the classroom?

Check out [tag Educate Against Hate - @educateagainst]’s new #LetsDiscuss resource packs featuring videos, classroom tasks and guidance now ↓

<https://educateagainsthate.com/category/teachers/classroom-resources/?filter=lets-discuss>

9th May - Extreme right-wing terrorism pack

Discussions about the extreme right-wing can often appear in the news, and your students may be asking questions about it.

[tag Educate Against Hate] has you covered with brand-new teaching resources on the impact of the extreme right-wing.

<https://educateagainsthate.com/lets-discuss-extreme-right-wing>

10th May - Islamist extremism pack

When it comes to holding discussions on challenging topics it can be hard to know where to look for support.

Check out [tag Educate Against Hate]’s brand-new resource #LetsDiscuss to support classroom discussions around Islamist extremism and radicalisation.

<https://educateagainsthate.com/lets-discuss-islamist-extremism>

11th May - Fundamental British values pack

What does living in Britain mean to your students?

Lead classroom discussions on shared British values using [tag Educate Against Hate]’s brand-new resource #LetsDiscuss featuring videos, classroom tasks and guidance ↓

<https://educateagainsthate.com/lets-discuss-british-values>

12th May - Left-wing, anarchist, single-issue pack

Looking to have conversations with your pupils about left-wing, anarchist and single-issue extremism in the classroom?

[tag Educate Against Hate]’s new #LetsDiscuss resource pack has you covered ↓

<https://educateagainsthate.com/lets-discuss-lasi-extremism>

