Isabella Wallace is co-author of the best-selling teaching guides, "Pimp Your Lesson", "Talk-Less Teaching", and the new "Best of the Best" Classroom Guides for Teachers. An experienced and award-winning educator, she is consultant and contributor for the Oxford Dictionary of Education and presents nationally and internationally on outstanding teaching and learning. Described as one of the most charismatic trainers working in the UK today, Isabella's training sessions are both practical in nature and cutting edge in content. As a widely-experienced teacher and leader, she can relate to teachers in a variety of contexts, and she produces and shares materials that enhance practice in subjects across the curriculum.

A few things you probably didn't know about Isabella...
 She plays flute, piano and guitar and used to sing in a band.
 She lived and worked in France and is fully bi-lingual.
 Her first job was washing car windcreens at traffic lights on the Cote D'Azur – where she earned more money per hour than she did in her first teaching job!
