NPQLBC

National Professional Qualification for Leading Behaviour and Culture

Who is it for?

This is a specialist NPQ for teachers who have, or are aspiring to have, responsibilities for leading on behaviour and culture within their school, and to support others in these areas. This qualification is suitable for those in mainstream, SEND and Alternative Provision settings.

Benefits for Teachers

- Gain a nationally-recognised, prestigious, government-backed qualification to help you progress in your career.
- Develop knowledge and understanding of how to apply the evidence on how to create and support an effective school and classroom culture, underpinned by positive behaviour and wellbeing.

Benefits for Schools

- A skillful and research-informed professional who can lead the improvement of pupil wellbeing, create calm classrooms, great pupil behaviour and a warm whole-school culture.
- Practical capability to get on with the job of developing others with the skills to lead, creating change and impact.
- The ability to review and evaluate practice to bring about change and get the best outcomes for young people.

Funding

2023-24 may be the final fully funded year!

We expect it will be very competitive, and so we recommend making early applications.

Did you know there is funding available for teachers/leaders to complete multiple NPQs?

Visit our website to find out more.

Why choose us?

“ Our mission is to attract, develop, and retain the best teaching practitioners and education leaders across the WM4 region. Through research-based initiatives and programmes we hope to improve and raise teaching standards for all teachers, from those entering the profession to existing professionals developing further in their careers. ”

" The course material is utterly brilliant. Such high quality and carefully crafted."

" I have developed the ability to interrupt my assumptions about a given problem, to return to the evidence, rather than alighting too quickly on the solution easiest to hand."

" Thank you very much. I left feeling energised with a renewed sense of purpose."
