

Book now - 90% Subsidised Theatre In Education programmes for year 4 – 6 on staying safe in on and offline relationships.

As you may know, Warwickshire County Council is providing 90% subsidy for schools to have Helping Hands, our interactive theatre in education programme on staying safe in on and offline relationships. The programme takes a safe, sensitive and age-appropriate look at issues including domestic abuse, child sexual exploitation, knife crime and county lines.

Sessions must take place before the end of March 2024 so if you haven't already booked your session, do get in touch while the funding's still available!

"Professional, friendly, knowledgeable, confident and the best fun! The pupils loved them, I have never seen our children so engaged and enthralled - the sometimes difficult and sensitive messages were delivered with assurance and the greatest care."

- Director of Inclusion/Safeguarding

The programme is suitable as a drop down format for either Year 4 & 5 OR Year 5 & 6 and consists of a 1hr drama performance and character Q&A, followed by consecutive, 20-minute, class at a time discussion workshops.

If you've already had the programme for some pupils this year, don't worry, we will work with you to select the appropriate year group/s and date for our next visit, to avoid repeat participants.

To book your session or if you have any questions please contact Caroline Bridges, Partnerships and Tours Manager
