'Was so nice to listen to people so knowledgeable with real solutions as I just don't have time to do all that research on top of my job.'

Teen Book Award 2023

There's still time to sign-up to our Teen Book Award 2023. Schools are sent all the information and resources they need to host their own 'Speed Shortlisting' events at their school later in September. Student votes are collated and the final 4 shortlist is announced in early October. Students then have a couple of months to read the 4 books and vote for their favourite, which will be announced in an online ceremony in December 2023. Click here for more information and to sign-up.

Do you need new books/resources or help with your school library? We can help....

We can provide a range of subscription options to meet your curriculum and reading for pleasure needs. We also offer library support and can complete a range of tasks at your school, such as, weeding, auditing, organising etc. Email: schoolslibraryservice@warwickshire.gov.uk

Warwickshire Libraries' Young Poet Laureate

The search is on for the next Young Poet Laureate! The competition is open to anyone aged between 13 and 17 who lives and is educated in Warwickshire and who would like to perform their own poetry to an audience. A fantastic opportunity so please promote this at your schools. Click here for more information about the YPL and upcoming workshops at Warwick and Atherstone Libraries.

CODE NAME Kingfisher by Liz Kessler
Suitable for ages 9-11 but also for Y7/8 too: In Nazi-occupied Amsterdam in 1942, Hannie joins the Resistance. In the modern day, Liv is trying to cope with bullies at school. Heart-breaking, thought-provoking but a must-read.

Welcome to Camp Killer by Cynthia Murphy
A gripping, fast-paced, dyslexia friendly horror title from Barrington Stoke. Interest age 13+, reading age 8. An American-style residential camp is set up in the grounds of an English stately home, the teenage instructors are looking forward to a summer of fun. But right from the start, things don't feel quite right at Camp Miller...
